To Whom It May Concern

It is with great joy and full confidence that I write this letter of recommendation for Bradford Henry as a faithful and gifted servant of the Lord. For nearly four years, Brad has served alongside me in the work of online ministry through Inspirations Ministries, helping lead Bible study communities with consistency, passion, and spiritual depth.

Brad has demonstrated a steadfast heart for discipleship, regularly encouraging others in the Word, praying fervently for those in need, and cultivating genuine fellowship in our virtual gatherings. His ability to connect with people across diverse backgrounds, while pointing them back to Scripture and the heart of Christ, has been an invaluable asset to our ministry.

What sets Brad apart is not only his biblical knowledge, but his humility and teachable spirit. Whether leading discussions or quietly supporting behind the scenes, he has been faithful in little and much. His character is marked by integrity, kindness, and a sincere desire to serve wherever God calls.

If you are considering Brad for ministry leadership, mentorship, or spiritual service, I give him my highest recommendation. He is a blessing to the body of Christ and a trusted brother in the faith.

If you would like further information, I am happy to speak on his behalf.

In Christ,

John 'Jay' R. Spurlock
